Dignity. Compassion. Possibility.

These are the values we, at DCP, see in the world. These are the values we aim to find, support, and offer as we fulfill our mission “to improve the quality of life and reduce the impact of poverty in Downeast communities.”

Our mission applies to everyone in our communities. As such, our programs provide opportunities across the entire lifespan—from prenatal care to aging safely in place. Since Washington Hancock Community Agency (1966) and Child and Family Opportunities (1972) merged to become Downeast Community Partners in 2017, we are better equipped to offer lifespan opportunities in Hancock and Washington counties than ever.

We look forward to helping you find the opportunities that meet your needs because dignity, compassion, and possibility are not just the values we see in the world at large. These are the values we see in you.
